

Church of The Redeemer presents
the annual Lloyd Jackson Memorial Lectures

Dr. Gregory K. Beale

speaking on

The Temple and the Church's Mission

Saturday-Sunday
April 14-15

Come hear how the dwelling place of God in the Old Testament relates to you and the Church's mission today.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

All sessions are open to the public and free of charge

Saturday, April 14

9:00 a.m. The Temple and the Church's Mission, Part 1

Break

10:30 a.m. The Temple and the Church's Mission, Part 2

Lunch

1:00 p.m. The Temple and the Church's Mission, Part 3

Sunday, April 15

10:30 a.m. The Two Witnesses and the Temple (Rev. 11:1-13)
Morning worship and sermon

Location: Church Of the Redeemer

717 North Stapley Drive, Mesa, AZ 85203

(480) 833-7500

churchredeemeraz.org

Dr. Gregory K. Beale

Professor of New Testament and biblical theology at Westminster Theological Seminary.

Gregory K. Beale was born 1949 in Dallas Texas. He is also known as G. K. Beale. Reverend Beale is an ordained minister in the Orthodox Presbyterian Church. He has made a number of contributions to conservative Biblical hermeneutics, particularly in the area of the use of the Old Testament in the New Testament. He served as the president of the Evangelical Theological Society in 2004. In 2013, he was elected by Westminster Theological Seminary to be the first occupant of the J. Gresham Machen Chair of New Testament.

CHILDCARE AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST. PLEASE CALL IN ADVANCE at (480) 833-7500.